AFFILIATE DISCLOSURE

This affiliate disclosure details affiliate relationships that Movementum.co.uk has with other companies and products. Please note, Movementum adheres to the FTC Disclosure Guidelines regarding transparency between advertisers and endorsers.

Movementum may earn a small commission on items that have been purchased through affiliate links for products mentioned on the website, though the price is the same for you. Using affiliate links helps support Movementum and our work.

We do not have any control over these third party companies or have a financial interest other than an affiliate relationship unless otherwise disclosed. Any issues you may have regarding a product, shipping or concerns should be directed to the company the item was purchased from as we will not be able to help if you have any problems.

Movementum don't write sponsored blogs or make sponsored videos, although we may collaborate with businesses and brands and this will be made clear in the descriptions of the content. We have a policy of purchasing products and using them personally before promoting them or linking to them. When we are offered free products for review we refuse them as we don't consider it is possible to be unbiased and impartial and offer honest opinion.

We evaluate every potential advertising partner on a case-by-case basis and decide whether to work with them based on the company ethos and whether it reflects our values and those of our readers. Our thoughts and opinions are our own and not formed by sponsors or advertisers.

Unless otherwise stated and made crystal clear, Movementum do not work with the following :

- Paid or sponsored blog posts
- Free products for review
- 3rd party promotional companies or services
- Network marketing or MLM
- Ad networks
